

PSA Weekends

Pre-course distance element

- Task 1 Participants complete a Needs analysis and e-mail to the trainer
- Task 2 Pre-course reading: New technology in language teaching
- Task 3 Participants complete a worksheet and bring it to Session 1

Weekend Courses

Friday

Evening socializing event

“Getting to know you”

Saturday

9.00 – 10.30

Blended Learning / New pedagogies

11.00 – 12.30

Web-based materials / evaluation criteria

LUNCH

13.45 – 15.00

Blogs and wikis

15.30 – 17.00

Podcasting

17.15 – 18.00

Working groups: discussion on post-course follow-up

Sunday

9.00 – 10.30

Interactive whiteboards

11.00 – 12.30

Virtual Learning Environments

LUNCH

13.30 – 14.30

New technologies [incl. M-learning]

14.45 – 16.00

Focus on the future / participant action plans

Post-course distance element

1. Using Moodle to display project work, blog, socialize with participants
2. Submission of project descriptions and trainer feedback

Courses 2010

Dates:

26 – 27 June

18 – 19 December

Venue:

Stratford-upon-Avon, UK

All participants receive a PSA certificate of attendance.

Contact us

For further information, contact us:

info@psa.eu.com

Visit our website:

www.psa.eu.com

About us

PSA is an educational consultancy and training organisation for language teachers. PSA runs courses worldwide for teachers of English as a Foreign Language, teacher trainers and academic managers on how to successfully integrate educational technology into their language courses.